PLACEMENT & DIRECTION

Where to hang your Ananda

● East (Indra)

The direction of morning cheer — ideal on a bedside wall, in a breakfast nook or a child's room, so the smile greets the day.

● North-East (Ishanya)

Peace of mind: a happy, settled note for a study or reading corner.

● South-West (Nairutya)

Family harmony — keeps the shared living space warm and good-humoured.

At B5 this piece suits a desk, shelf, bedside table or a small gallery-wall cluster. Place it at eye level where it is seen often — a hallway, work desk or kitchen wall — so the smile at its centre does its work daily.

Ananda · Smile of Contentment

A hand-drawn mandala for happiness, contentment & a warm home

1 The Smiling Face

CENTRE DISC

A round dark face with two bright eyes and a wide smile — contentment that comes from within, and needs no reason.

2 Petal Crown

DOTTED PETALS

A ring of soft petals, each holding a single dot, hugs the face — small daily pleasures gathered close around the heart.

3 Sunburst Ring

HATCHED POINTS

Sharp points radiate outward, each filled with fine strokes — the energy that a happy mind brings to everything it touches.

4 Scalloped Bands

FAN SHAPES

Shell-like scallops open outward in every direction — the ease and generosity of a person at peace.

5 Leaf Petals

STRIPED TEARDROPS

Long striped petals fan out toward the rim, filled with patient parallel lines — steady, growing wellbeing.

6 Rays of Light

FINE RADIATING LINES

Hairline rays fan out between the points — cheerfulness that spreads quietly to whoever stands nearby.

7 Spiral Petals

CURLING MOTIFS

Petals filled with tiny spirals turn around the outer rings — good humour that keeps circulating and never runs dry.

8 Beaded Arches

DOTTED BORDERS

Rows of little beads edge the outer petals like a string of pearls — moments of joy strung together into a life.

9 Light & Dark

CONTRAST

Bright petals set into deep-inked ground — happiness that does not deny hard days, but shines through them.

10 The Whole Circle

OUTER RING

One clean circle holds every ring and petal in a single embrace — wholeness, and a home that feels complete.
