PLACEMENT & DIRECTION

Where to hang your Shanti

- North-East (Ishanya)

The most sacred, calming corner — ideal for meditation or prayer to deepen peace.

- East

The rising-sun direction — fresh, uplifting energy and wellbeing.

- North

Supports harmony, a settled mind and steady positive flow.

Best in a meditation or study space, at or above eye level. Keep it clean, well-lit and clutter-free.

Shanti · Bloom of Peace

A hand-drawn mandala for peace, harmony & healing

1 The Still Sun

CENTRE / CORE

At the heart lies a calm, cross-hatched sun — the still point of peace from which all harmony radiates outward.

2 Petals of the Heart

INNER BLOOM

A ring of open white petals surrounds the core: purity and the quiet opening of the heart to serenity.

3 Feathered Breath

LEAF RAYS

Soft feather-like rays fan outward like gentle breath (prana) — calm energy moving evenly in every direction.

4 Spirals of Serenity

SPIRAL MOTIFS

Small spirals turn through the rings: the gentle unfolding of life, cycles of rest and quiet renewal.

5 Shells of Blessing

FAN PETALS

Rows of shell-like petals gather outward — the many small blessings that make a peaceful life full.

6 Rings of Harmony

CONCENTRIC RINGS

Layer upon layer ripples outward in balance; harmony repeated at every scale, waves of calm expanding.

7 The Quiet Rhythm

DOTTED BANDS

Steady rows of dots keep a soft, even beat — the quiet heartbeat that settles the restless mind.

8 Perfect Wholeness

RADIAL SYMMETRY

Flawless radial balance holds every direction in equilibrium: completeness, and a mind at rest.

9 The Blooming Edge

OUTER PETALS

At the rim the mandala blooms fully open — peace no longer held within, but radiating into the world.

10 The Encircling Whole

BOUNDARY

The outer circle gathers all within: unity, protection and the boundless calm that contains every pattern.
