PLACEMENT & DIRECTION

Where to hang your Tejas

- East wall
Surya's rising-sun direction — invites fresh energy, vitality and spiritual light.
- North-East (Ishanya)
The most sacred corner; ideal in a prayer or meditation space.
- North
Supports clarity of mind and steady positive energy.

Best in a meditation or study space, at or above eye level. Keep it clean, well-lit and clutter-free.

KEY · SYMBOLISM & PRICING

Tejas · Radiant Star

A hand-drawn mandala for spiritual energy & vitality

1 The Radiant Core

CENTRE / BINDU

All light begins at a single still point. This is the source — the quiet centre from which energy and awareness radiate outward.

2 Rays of Prana

RADIATING SPOKES

Fine lines stream out from the core like beams of life-force (prana), carrying vital energy in every direction.

3 Chevrons of Ascent

CHEVRON BANDS

Rows of rising chevrons echo the upward movement of awakened energy — aspiration lifting the spirit higher.

4 Facets of Light

HATCHED TRIANGLES

Countless hand-hatched triangles catch light and shade: the many facets of one awakened, focused mind.

5 The Twelve-Fold Star

RADIAL SYMMETRY

The star's many points mirror cosmic order and completeness — the rays of the sun, the wholeness of the circle.

6 Concentric Rings

EXPANDING RINGS

Layer upon layer ripples outward like widening awareness; each ring a stage in the expansion of the spirit.

7 Depth & Dimension

LIGHT & SHADOW

The play of light against dark creates depth — the balance of opposites that inner growth learns to harmonise.

8 Sacred Geometry

DIAMOND LATTICE

The geometric net beneath the pattern is the hidden order of creation, the harmony that structures mind and cosmos.

9 The Blooming Star

OUTER CROWN

At the rounded outer edge the star blooms fully open — energy expressed and radiant into the world.

10 The Guiding Circle

BOUNDARY

The encircling ring holds all within: unity, protection and the infinite that contains every pattern.
