PLACEMENT & DIRECTION

Where to hang your Chakra

- North-West (Vayavya)

The direction of movement and change — eases transitions and invites new opportunities.

- East

Fresh starts and the energy to embrace change with optimism.

- North

Forward progress and momentum through life's cycles.

Best in a hallway, entrance or open moving space where change is welcomed.
Keep it clean and uncluttered.

Chakra · Wheel of Change

A hand-drawn mandala for transformation, flow & positive change

1 The Turning Centre

CENTRE / HUB

The spinning heart of the wheel — the still hub around which all change quietly revolves.

2 The Spiral Wheel

PINWHEEL RAYS

Rays curve outward like a pinwheel in motion: the constant turning of time and the flow of life ever forward.

3 Spirals of Change

SPIRAL MOTIFS

Countless spirals across the design — nothing stays still; each spiral a small transformation, an unfolding and renewal.

4 Diamonds of Direction

LOZENGE MOTIFS

Pointed diamonds like compass needles, marking the many directions change can take: choice, and new paths opening.

5 Waves of Flow

FEATHERED ARCS

Sweeping arcs like currents of air and water — the ease that comes from moving with change rather than against it.

6 Shells of Renewal

FAN PETALS

Shell-fans opening outward: growth that arrives through cycles, each turn leaving something new behind.

7 Rings of Cycles

CONCENTRIC RINGS

Ring within ring, like seasons or turning years — change that returns and renews in endless, steady cycles.

8 Perfect Motion

RADIAL SYMMETRY

Flawless balance even in movement: the harmony that can be found within constant change.

9 The Blooming Turn

OUTER LOBES

At the rim the wheel opens fully — transformation completed, flowering into something new.

10 The Encircling Wheel

BOUNDARY

The outer circle is the rim of the wheel, holding all its turning within: the wholeness of change, the cycle unbroken.
