PLACEMENT & DIRECTION

Where to hang your Sarasvati

- North-East (Ishanya)

The sacred corner of wisdom and clarity — ideal in a study or creative space to deepen insight.

- East

Fresh ideas, learning and inspiration with the rising sun.

- North

Clarity of mind and steady focus for creative and intellectual work.

Best above a study desk, in a library or a creative studio. Keep the space clean and inspiring.

Sarasvati · Lotus of Wisdom

A hand-drawn mandala for creativity, wisdom & learning

- 1 The Wellspring
CENTRE / SPIRAL
The swirling heart of the bloom — the source-spring from which ideas rise and turn, the origin of every creative thought.
- 2 The Inner Bloom
INNER ROSETTE
The first ring of petals opening around the spring: an idea taking its earliest, most delicate form.
- 3 Petals of Expression
LAYERED PETALS
Tier upon tier of petals, each reaching further out — thoughts becoming words, works and living creations.
- 4 Infinite Variety
VARIED FILLS
No two petals are filled alike — crosshatch, dots, weave and line: the endless variety of a free imagination.
- 5 Spirals of Insight
TIP SPIRALS
Small spirals curl at the edges — the turn of understanding, the moment an idea clicks quietly into place.

- 6 The Feathered Hand
LEAF PETALS
Softly hatched leaf-petals, like quills at work: the fluent, flowing hand of the maker in full flow.
- 7 Tiers of Mastery
LAYERED RINGS
Ring within ring, each layer built on the one before: skill and wisdom deepening with patient practice.
- 8 Balanced Genius
RADIAL SYMMETRY
Perfect balance holds the wild variety together — imagination and discipline in easy harmony.
- 9 The Blooming Voice
OUTER PETALS
The outermost petals open fully to the world: creativity freely expressed, wisdom gladly shared.
- 10 The Hidden Scaffold
GUIDE GEOMETRY
The faint pencil geometry beneath the ink — the quiet structure and study that lets free creativity stand.
